Wilmington Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wilmington, N. C., May 13.—One of the chief events of pleasure of the week was the tenth anniversary celebration of Carolina Council, Royal Arcanum. The council observed the event in royal manner. Henry E. Bonitz presided as toastmaster, and also delivered a stirring address on the principles of the order. There were a number of fine toast responses, one of the best being by Rev. S. Mendelsohn, D. D. Captain R. O. Crisp, of the revenue cutter Seminole, and Mrs. Crisp left this week. Captain Crisp has been transferred from the command here. Both the captain and his wife made numerous friends here, and were quite prominent in social circles. A delightful occasion Wednesday was the celebration of their golden wedding by Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wilson. The event was also the occasion of a family reunion, and a reception held at the Wilson home, on Nun Street. For a number of years Mr. Wilson was City Treasurer of Wilmington, and is one of the city's most highly esteemed citizens. Mrs. H. R. Bates charmingly entertained her department of the North Carolina Sorosis at her hospitable home, on South Second Street. There were many entertainments given this week in honor of the delegates here in attendance upon the North Carolina Lutheran Synod. As a
